The festivities of the fifth anniversary

Chicago, 19.—The Detroit Post and Tribune has a letter from a prominent business man formerly of that city, now of Aiken, South Carolina, enclosing a copy of the Aiken Journal, which publishes an editorial regarding a Garfeld and Arthur Club just formed there. The point of it is that though the republicans claim they do not mitend to meddle with state and local politics, they had better beware. It says: Since the radicals have once more disred to show their front, we must again go into the fight, under the leadership of Hancock and English, and utterly annihilate them. For the people of Aiken County we pledge the democracy of South Carolina that when November comes there will not be enough of the radical party left in Aiken County to act as pail bearers to their dead ticket. We will bury it cut of sight under a 5,000 msjority, and there will not be a mourner left. Two statements in this article have shocking significance: First, the declaration that the r-dicals have once more dered to show their front; second, the pledge that Aiken County should give 6,000 msjority for the democracy. That county cast 5,618 votes in 1878, and 5 119 in 1870. Evidently, the Journal pledge means that not a radical vote shall get into the ballet box in that county this fall.

The Sphinx Speaks.

Denver, 18 — Grant, in an interview, said: "I can say without hesitation that I will give Garfield my hearty support There is no reason why any republican should not vots for Garfield. I know him to be a man of ta'ent, thoroughly accomplished, and an upright man. I have nothing against General Hancock, but Garfield is the man for the office."

He denied the import that he had compained of onking and Logan having deceived him. He had no letter from either before or after the convention, since his return to America. He said of all men Conkling and Logan were the last for him to find fault with, and he felt more proud of the 312 that slood by him than if he had received the nomination by unfair means. him than it he had received the homes-ton by unfair means.
